Art Unit: 2852

1. Claims 41-43 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

It is believed that the member applicant is referring to in claims 37-40 is the end portion 2a of the shaft 2. However, in claims 41-43, applicant seems to be describing the member as the inner wall portion of member which supports the cap 3 (see Fig.5). These two members are not the same and therefore contradict each other. Further, it is believed that the capping member does not have a feeding portion nor a shaft.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

1. Claim 37 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kato et al.

Kato et al. teach a toner supply container 3 mountable to a developing device 4 of an image forming apparatus comprising a main body of the supply container configured to store toner, an opening 20 to permit discharge of toner, a capping member 21 for sealing (cap) the opening, and an end member 19. The capping member 21 and the end member 19 are slidable relative to one another for closing and opening the opening in the supply container. See Fig.5A, 5B.

3. Claims 38-39 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

4. Claims 41-43 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

5. Claims 44-51 would be allowable over the prior art of record.
